

Securing affordable homes for local people

Bexhill Community Land Trust – Volunteer Opportunities:

Interested in creating affordable housing for local people?

Then get involved in the Bexhill Community Land Trust.....

Bexhill Community Land Trust (CLT) is a Community Benefit Society, registered with the Financial Conduct Authority, which aims to further, in a sustainable manner, the social, economic and environmental interests of people who live or work, in the Bexhill area by:

- Acquiring, developing and stewarding land and other assets
- Promoting community-led initiatives, such as housing, community facilities, workspaces, renewable energy and sustainable land management projects

CLTs are non-profit, community-based organisations run by volunteers to address the needs of their local area. Our main focus is on building new, affordable homes for local people...

We are recruiting to our Board and would welcome people with skills in the following areas:

- Community involvement
 - Legal experience
 - Financial experience
- Human Resources experience
- Public relations experience
- Property Development

If you are interested and would like further information call the Chairperson Ruairi McCourt for an informal conversation on 01424 760031 or email us at hello@bexhillclt.org.uk
